

Salaat-ul-Ayaat

Rules regarding Salaat-ul-Ayaat

- The Prayers is obligatory even if the moon or the sun is partially eclipsed, whether they cause any fear or not.

Method of Offering

Salaat-ul-Ayaat consists of two Rak'ats, and there are 5 Rokoo' in each.

Make intention for Salaatul Ayaat and recite:

- 1st Rak'at: Surah al-Hamd & Surah Ikhlas (for example) then go to Rokoo', then stand up and recite Surah al-Hamd & Ikhlas then go to Rokoo'. Until you complete five times. After the fifth Rokoo' go for Sujood.
- 2nd Rak'at: al-Hamd & Ikhlas then Rokoo', then again al-Hamd & Ikhlas, then Rokoo'. Do this five times the same as the first Rak'at and then after the fifth Rokoo' go for Sojood and Tashahud and Salam.

If Salat-ul-Ayaat is for an eclipse, it is Mustahab to offer it in Jama'a. (As per the rules of the Jama'a Prayer, only the Imam recites the two Surahs).
